Q 1. Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

Bears are found in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. They are massively built, with short tails and thick legs. Bears are not really carnivores. They eat almost anything, the chief exception in the polar bear, which lives on fish and seals in its natural state. However, in captivity, they seem to enjoy meat, vegetables, fruits, milk, rice and porridge. Bears are not quite as dangerous as people imagine them to be like most animals; they will do their best to avoid human beings. They have a special sense that is eyesight to see things.

- (i) Where are bears found?
- (ii) What does a bear eat in captivity?
- (iii) What does a bear avoid like most animals?
- (iv) What kind of body do the bears have?
- (v) What is the strongest sense of a bear?

Q 2. Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

The culture of Rajasthan is very different and unique. The unique mixture of diverse topography, history and curious lifestyle is what gives Rajasthani culture its rich heritage. The rich culture in Rajasthan is visible in each and every aspect of the state. The colourful dresses, the heavy jewellery, the palatial mansions and Havelis, and the diverse and joyous festivals and fairs, all are symbols of the rich and unique culture of Rajasthan. The dull and harsh living condition of people in Rajasthan is made a bit colourful and lively by the multitude of fairs and festivals that are celebrated there. The only way people here enjoy the simple pleasures of life is by celebrating each and every occasion and event on a grand scale. Any festival, big or small, is celebrated with much enthusiasm and joy. Rajasthan comes alive during fairs and important festivals. Monsoons are also the time to indulge in festivity and grand feasts, as rains are an occasion to celebrate in Rajasthan. Rajasthan is famous for its exquisite embroidery
