Rippling crystal waters shine like silver to reflect summer's glow.
Soothing and calming in rhythm, echoing its lyrical flow.
Magical music of nature, a symphony of splendid delight.
Skies like blue oceans in paradise, birds soaring to grasp full flight.

Dear Parents,

“School stops for summer, learning never stops.”

Summer holiday homework is a way to keep your child connected to learning during this long break. It is an excellent opportunity to encourage children to work on their own and develop self holiday homework designed would not only help your as responsible individuals.

Few guidelines for your parents to make your long summer break fruitful.

1. “Knowledge is Power”. Therefore encourage your child to cultivate the reading habit because it not only enhances the knowledge acquired but also develops the vocabulary, language skills and improves spellings. And also read to your child because it builds reading skills and increases his/her attention span.
2. Communication skills play a pivotal role in grooming the overall personality of the children. Converse with your child preferably in English to help him / her get comfortable with the language.
3. Spend quality time with your child engaging him / her in activities based on enhancing his /her powers of observation and imagination.
4. Sensitize your child about the rich culture and heritage by watching different informative channels like ‘The National Geographic’, Animal Planet etc.

Wishing you all happy times together!!!

ENGLISH

1. One day God Bacchus came to Midas who had once helped god Bacchus and in return Bacchus offered him a gift. "What shall I give you to make you happy," the God asked him. Midas thought for a while and then said, "Please give me the power to turn everything | touch into gold." Bacchus laughed and said, "Your wish is granted as soon as the Sun rises tomorrow, you will have the golden touch." The next morning Midas woke up, and he had his golden touch. He touched his bed, the chairs, doors, windows and all became gold.

Suddenly, he felt very hungry. He sat at the table but as soon as the food touched his lips, it turned into gold. So did the water. It seemed he could no longer eat or drink. After some time, his daughter came to him. When he put hand on her, she became a gold statue. In the end, Midas became very sad and prayed God Bacchus to take away the golden touch from him.
